

NOTE: Read only the bolded parts of the script. I've included the entire scene so you've got some context as to what's going on.

SCENE 11 - INT. HOME - NIGHT

Daniel and Katie are sitting on the couch together. They're both on different sides of the couch. The movie is on and they've got popcorn and ice cream. Daniel looks at the picture with him and his ex-girlfriend. Katie notices.

KATIE

Hey, can I move some stuff around?

DANIEL

Confused

Sure?

Katie gets up and goes over to the picture and puts it face down. She goes back to the couch and sits next to Daniel.

KATIE

As your friend and someone who cares deeply about you - I'm going to make you talk about it.

DANIEL

Please don't.

KATIE

Mocking him

Please don't. Pft. Yeah, because that's how you cope. We are and you're dealing with it.

Daniel gives her a look of "okay, do it then".

KATIE

Why?

DANIEL

Hm?

KATIE

Why do you think you broke up?

Daniel knows he's not getting out of this.

DANIEL

I got angry a lot. Hurt her. So, she left.

KATIE

Daniel, we both know there's more than that.

DANIEL

Yeah, but I can't control how she reacts, only how I do.

KATIE

Exactly. And have you fixed that? How you react?

DANIEL

Yeah, but she doesn't care.

KATIE

Then that's on her. Not you. I know it sucks, believe me I do. But you deserve somebody that is there for you. ESPECIALLY, when you're working on being better FOR them.

DANIEL

I know. It just sucks.

KATIE

I know it does. But hey, I'm here for you. So is Kyle, even though he's a little clueless.

Katie and Daniel laugh a bit. They move a little closer.

DANIEL

Laughing

He tries his best.

Daniel's last alarm goes off. "9:00 PM: GO HOME". He sees and ignores it.

KATIE (Continues)

And that's what you need. People that try their best. That's what we all need.

