SYNOPSIS: The Kidnapped Moon is a 20 minute short film that tells the story of a fox named, Faer and his best friend, Luna, whom he fears has been kidnapped. In his search for Luna, Faer meets other animal characters and a young boy named Shawn who joins him along the way and introduces him to the world of astronomy. In the end, new friendships are made and old friends are reunited.

CASTING NOTICE: NARRATOR

NARRATOR: (VOICE OVER, Lead, 30-70)

Tonally appropriate for age groups 5-10. Our Narrator is capable of delivering a range of emotion from calm and inquisitive to empathetic and fantastical. Often taking audiences on a 'fairytale' adventure without it being over the top. Our storyteller draws inspiration from voices similar to Lynne Thigpen, Morgan Freeman, Phylicia Rashad and even Kelsey Grammer.

Language – English

Accents – American English peppered with sporadic foreign accents for one character (Bonnie).

Required Media – Voice Reel

CHARACTER BREAKDOWNS

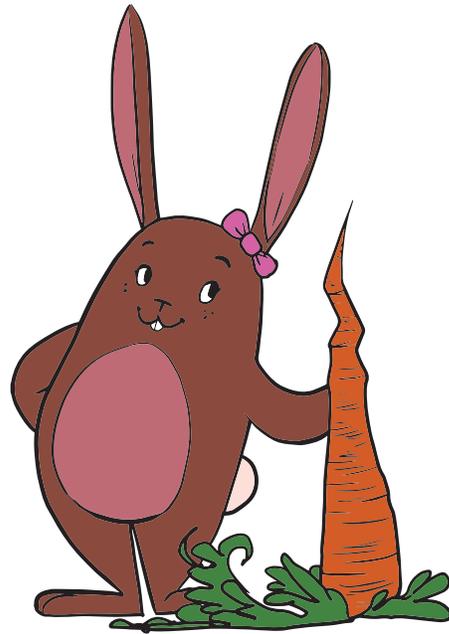

Faer

A friendly, loyal, quick-thinking fox who is a warm, open and compassionate leader. Faer cherishes meaningful relationships and will endeavor to protect them no matter the costs. His voice is relatable, affectionate and at times sentimental.

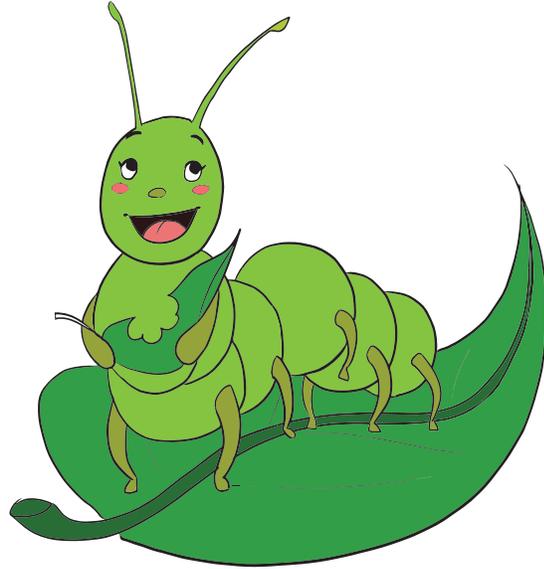

Bonnie

Smart, resourceful and quick-witted. An outspoken, yet loveable bunny who helps navigate the search for Luna with confidence, effervescence and moments of unexpected voices sporadic foreign language and perfectly timed humor. Her voice is light and sensible.

Cat

A small and ordinarily soft-spoken caterpillar. Cat is easygoing, grounded and light-hearted. Her voice is pragmatic and levelheaded.

Andy

Bashfully good-natured, deferential and obliging. Careful and cautious yet, timorously adventurous when necessary. Quite insecure of his nose and allergy ridden. A dedicated friend with separation anxiety. His voice is tentative and provisional.

Oda

Wise, fun, calm and rational. Oda is the maternal and guiding voice that brings understanding to confusion and offers peace in place of fear. All answers lie with her. She is an inviting teacher who sees all things and encourages everyone to explore and learn by receiving her wisdom. She has a beautifully soothing singing voice and often breaks out in song to drive her point home. Her voice is inspirational, robust and confident.

Shawn

Our only human friend is Shawn. BM 8 y/o science junkie. He is kind-hearted, friendly, uncharacteristically smart, obsessively inquisitive and quite adventurous. Athletically inclined, as he is often found climbing trees and hiking through nature to study his favorite subject—astronomy. His voice is curious, eager and agreeable.
